REPUBLIC OF TRINIDAD AND TOBAGO

Chairman :
SIR ISAAC HYATALI, T.C.

Members :
O. WILSON, C.M.T., Dr. N. MASSON, M.O.M., L. MURRAY, M.O.M.

12th February, 1987.

The Honourable Nizam Mohammed, M.P.,
Speaker of the House of Representatives,
Red House,
St. Vincent Street,
PORT-OF-SPAIN.

Sir,

1. Sub-rule (6) of Rule 108 of the Election Rules (the sub-rule) as amended by the Election (Amendment) Rules 1986, made under section 161 (1) of the Representation of the People Act, Chapter 2:01 prescribes in effect that the Elections and Boundaries Commission (the Commission) shall immediately after each election, cause to be printed a report giving:—

- (a) the number of votes polled for each candidate, by polling divisions;
- (b) the number of rejected ballots;
- (c) the number of names on the revised list of electors and on the list of special electors;
- (d) any other information that it may deem fit to include;

and, in the case of a Parliamentary Election, forthwith forward a copy thereof to the Honourable Speaker of the House of Representatives.

2. Pursuant thereto, the Commission now submits to you herewith its printed Report on the Parliamentary Election held on December 15, 1986. It sets out the information required by paragraphs (a) and (b) of the sub-rule in Appendix I, and that required by paragraph (c) thereof, in Appendix II.

3. It will be noted from Appendix I and its Summary at the end thereof that the aggregate of the votes polled and the ballots rejected as spoilt reveals, that the number of electors that cast their votes was 577,300. This number exceeds the corresponding total cast in 1961 by 243,788; in 1966 by 274,752; in 1971 (the year of the "no vote campaign") by 458,703; in 1976 by 261,491; and in 1981 by 161,884. The ballots cast by electors in 1986 may therefore be aptly described as the largest number ever recorded at any Parliamentary Election.

4. A noteworthy feature of this Election was that Polling Day commenced, continued and concluded with manifestations of responsible and orderly conduct by electors throughout the Country. In fact, except for minor skirmishes reported at a few polling stations, and regrettably, some justifiable irritations experienced by some voters thereat, it can be asserted with assurance that the 577,300 electors who went to the polls and exercised their right to vote, did so peacefully, freely and fearlessly.

5. In the event, their choices which were duly made voluntarily and by secret ballot, produced a result which accurately reflected the true will of the overwhelming majority of the electorate and one which could not possibly be impugned or discredited as the offspring of electoral fraud. In fortification of this conclusion, it would be pertinent to record here, that so far as is known, no representation petition has been filed to question the election or return of any person upon allegations of corrupt or illegal practices, or indeed, upon any other ground whatsoever.

6. The 577,300 electors who exercised their franchise constituted 65.45% of the total electorate of 882,029 recorded on the Revised List and the List of Special Electors (Appendix II). Included on the Revised List however, were (i) several duplications of the names of electors; and (ii) the names of some 89,000 electors left thereon because they were not seen by Itinerant Registration Officers during the update exercise conducted between July 22, and December 15, 1985, and have not since been identified or come forward to be. If the names in these two groups were omitted from the Revised List it is estimated that the 577,300 electors aforesaid who exercised their franchise would then constitute about 75 to 80% of the electorate. In relation to previous years the comparative percentages show that they were 88.11% in 1961; 65.79% in 1966; 33.17% in 1971; 55.83% in 1976; and 56.43% in 1981.

7. The duplication of names on the Lists, the existence of unidentified electors thereon, the performance of the Commission's Computer Section and the steps taken or proposed to resolve the problems resulting therefrom will be fully considered in the Commission's Supplemental Report referred to in the succeeding paragraphs hereof.

8. The Commission has deemed it fit under paragraph (d) of the sub-rule, to include in this Report the information contained in the foregoing paragraphs hereof and the following additional information in a Supplemental Report :-

- (i) a review of the Commission's activities from October 1, 1983 (the date of the assumption of office of its present Chairman) to February 28, 1987;
- (ii) an analysis of Polling Day Complaints with an account of the steps taken or proposed to redress them and/or avoid their recurrence;
- (iii) an assessment of the problems posed by the ad hoc recruitment and training of Polling Day Personnel and suggestions for their resolution;
- (iv) some proposals for the further reform and improvement of the system of registration and voting at elections; and
- (v) miscellaneous tables giving, inter alia, particulars of Constituencies, Polling Divisions, Registration Areas, Candidates nominated, elected and rejected, Polling Stations and their distribution, the Votes received by each political party, the Votes cast by the electorate at each Parliamentary Election from 1961 to 1986, and Returning Officers and their allocation to each of the 36 Constituencies.

9. As there is to be included in the Supplemental Report, data which have not yet come to hand, it will be forwarded to you under separate cover at a later date.

Yours faithfully,

ISAAC HYATALI
