Elections and Boundaries Commission

FIRST FLOOR, SALVATORI BUILDING, FREDERICK STREET, PORT-OF-SPAIN
REPUBLIC OF TRINIDAD AND TOBAGO

Chairman:

SIR ISAAC HYATALI, T.C.

Members:

O. WILSON, C.M.T., DR. N. MAGEE, M.O.M., L. MURRAY, M.O.M., R. JOHN, MSc.

January 31, 1996.

The Honourable Hector Mc Clean,
Speaker of the House of Representatives,
Parliament Building,
Port of Spain.

Sir,

1. Sub-rule (6) of Rule 108 of the Election Rules (the sub-rule) made under section 161(1) of the Representation of the People Act, Chap. 2:01 (the Act), prescribes in effect that the Elections and Boundaries Commission (the Commission) shall immediately after each election "cause to be printed a report giving -

- (a) the number of votes polled for each candidate, by polling divisions;
- (b) the number of rejected ballots;
- (c) the number of names on the revised list of electors and on the list of special electors; and
- (d) any other information that it may deem fit to include;

and shall forthwith forward a copy of the report" in the case of a Parliamentary election to the Speaker of the House of Representatives.

2. Pursuant thereto, the Commission now submits to you a copy of its printed report on the Parliamentary election held on November 6, 1995. It sets out in Appendix 1, the information required by paragraphs (a) and (b) of the sub-rule and in Appendix 11, that required by paragraph (c) thereof.

VI

3. The information and comments in the paragraphs which follow are given under paragraph (d) of the sub-rule.

4. A convenient summary of the data contained in Appendix 1 is set out in Appendix 111. It shows, inter alia, that the total number of qualified and eligible electors who exercised their franchise in this election was 530,311. This number constituted 63.30 per cent of the 837,741 names recorded in the revised list and the list of special electors compiled and published in accordance with the Act and the Rules made thereunder.

5. The comparative percentages of the turn-out of electors at Parliamentary Elections in previous years were as follows:

65.76 per cent in 1991
65.45 per cent in 1986
56.43 per cent in 1981
55.83 per cent in 1976
33.17 per cent in 1971
65.79 per cent in 1966
88.11 per cent in 1961

6. In its Report of February 14, 1992 the Commission complained that the period of 28 days allocated to it for the organisation and conduct of the 1991 general election proved to be "unmercifully exacting" since it subjected its employees to long, sustained and gruelling hours of toil to accomplish their task. Moreover, the Commission expressed the hope that "such an imposition might be avoided in future elections."

7. That hope however, was not realised in the last election since the period allowed for its organisation and conduct was 30 days, which included four weekends and a public holiday. This increase by two days was clearly de minimis and had the effect of repeating the exacting imposition of 1991.

8. There is at present without doubt, an imperative need for greater discernment in the selection of temporary staff for election duties; their exposure to a more intensive and comprehensive period of training in the duties to be performed by them under the Act and its voluminous regulations; a longer period to verify the bona fides of the personal data and other information supplied during the nine-day period of electoral registration; and generally, for the rendering of a more efficient service to an expanded and sophisticated electorate.

VII

9. These factors, in the Commission's considered view, have made it essential to provide at this point in our electoral history (a) that a minimum period of 5 weeks (exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays and public holidays) should be allowed for the preparation and conduct of elections; and (b) that this period should be made a statutory requirement and consequently, removed from determination at the discretion of the Prime Minister.

10. The last Report containing its recommendations on the number and boundaries of constituencies was made on 10 May, 1991 and duly approved thereafter by Parliament without change. The deadline therefore for the Commission's next Report, which has not yet been submitted, is May 9, 1996.

11. In these circumstances it should be noted that (a) the number and boundaries of the constituencies in the Commission's Report of 1991 were those used for the conduct of the last general election held on November 6, 1995. (b) the revised list of voters used for the purpose of this election was not the 1991 list of qualified electors but a revised list compiled from the Commission's register of 1995 as amended by the verified data and information received during the electoral registration conducted between 9th and 17th October, 1995, and (c) after making the percentage allowances to the average number of electors per constituency as permitted by the formula laid down in the Second Schedule of the Constitution, three constituencies were found to exceed the average by 0.22 to 4% while one of them fell below by 6%. These imbalances which resulted are, in the opinion of the Commission, too minimal to be of any significance, or to merit any comment.

12. It would be convenient however to comment at this juncture on information published as news items in the electronic media and the press which purported to convey the impression that 55,000 electors were removed from the list of electors and deprived of their right to vote.

13. The information as published arose from a misunderstanding of the true position both by the person who released the information and the Reporter who through no fault of his own published it without being able to check it out beforehand with a member of the Commission.

14. The true position is that for the 1986 general election the Commission had on its revised list the names of some 89,000 persons who were left thereon for the reason that some of them had not taken or supplied their photographs to complete their registration update while others had not been seen or identified during the course of the country wide update (the first of its kind) conducted between July 22 and December 15, 1985. (see in this connection paragraph 6 of the Commission's Report to the Speaker dated 12 February, 1987).

VIII

15. For the 1991 general election that number was substantially reduced by the deletion of the names of persons who had not updated their registration as required by the rules. However, persons who had updated but did not take their photographs or supply any were left on the list, and for the purpose of identification permitted to use their old identification cards.

16. By the beginning of 1994 the official list of qualified electors disclosed that there were still 55,000 persons thereon who still had not taken or supplied their photographs to complete their registration update. It was decided, at that stage that a special plan be devised to seek them out.

17. Accordingly, a campaign termed "PROJECT 55,000" was launched for this purpose. After a vigorous campaign some 22,718 persons completed their registration update by taking their photographs, but at the end of the campaign there remained 32,282 of them who had failed again to take their photographs or supply them. This failure however, did not affect their status as qualified and registered electors. In fact, they as well as those who took their photographs, remained at all material times on the revised list as qualified electors and fully entitled to exercise their franchise.

18. To say therefore that 55,000 names were removed from the revised list of electors and deprived of their franchise is totally incorrect. This never took place.

19. 1,622 polling stations were established in 1,173 polling divisions for the taking of the poll. The usual irritations and delays were experienced by electors at a few of them but they were substantially the offspring of understandable human shortcomings and had no material effect on the results of the election.

20. This conclusion is particularly relevant to the situation which developed in polling stations 1465(1) and 1465(2) in the constituency of St. Joseph. Press reports indicated that inordinate delays in the processing of electors had led to congestion at these stations and manifestations of irritation, short tempers and incivility.

21. Reports made to the Commission by the Returning Officer and Presiding Officers admitted delays and long lines of voters waiting to be processed, but also that they were caused mainly by the necessity to attend to an appreciable number of electors who were handicapped by blindness, old age, illness and other disabilities. The situation they reported was not assisted by agents who were less than civil to the Presiding Officers both of whom were women.

IX

22. It would suffice in the circumstances to state here, that according to the undisputed facts the Presiding Officers at both polling stations worked for more than 12 hours continuously without leaving their stations for anything, and without food or drink in order to cope with the demands made on them by unusual circumstances.

23. Notwithstanding these impediments it is to the great credit of these two Presiding Officers that the results showed that at polling station 1465(1) the votes cast were 539 out of a list of 689 voters and at station 1465(2) the votes cast were 532 out of a list of 785 voters. In other words, 72.59% of the total electorate of 1474 in this polling division actually cast their votes. These facts in our view, speak for themselves and certainly in commendation of the hard work, efficiency and dedication of these two officers and their staff.

24. As in 1991, this election was free of any untoward incident to mar its commencement, progress and conclusion. The maladies of coercion, violence and what has been described as "booth capturing" in other countries were completely absent everywhere. As a result, it is fair to conclude and to state with confidence that the electors in the exercise of their franchise, produced a result which truly expressed the choices they made and which could not be challenged as fraudulent or bogus. This conclusion is fortified by the overall percentage of the total votes cast, and the absence of any action to challenge any of the results by election petition or otherwise.

25. It is fitting to assert in this Report that all changes in government since the Country's accession to nationhood as a democracy under the Rule of Law, have to the great credit and glory of its people, taken place peacefully, honourably and respectfully. It was against such a background that in 1986 the Peoples National Movement led by former Prime Minister George Chambers handed over to the National Alliance for Reconstruction; that in 1991 the National Alliance for Reconstruction led by former Prime Minister A.N.R. Robinson handed over to the Peoples National Movement; and that in 1995 the Peoples National Movement led by former Prime Minister Patrick Manning handed over to the United National Congress led by Prime Minister Basdeo Panday.

26. This established record of regular, systematic and orderly elections followed by irenic transfers of power from one party to another is no mean achievement, for a young nation with a colonial past such as ours. It is a record in which its people should take immense pride and, in the Commission's view, it will add considerably to the Country's glory and status among nations, if its citizens were to honour this achievement not only with gratitude but also the due exercise of eternal vigilance to guard its sanctity against the predatory onslaught of rash and over-ambitious adventurers.

X

27. Appended to this Report also, for information, study and research are tables giving, inter alia, particulars of Electoral Districts, Polling Divisions, Candidates nominated, elected and rejected, Polling Stations and their distribution, the Votes received by each political party, the Votes cast by the electorate at each Parliamentary Election from 1961 to 1995, and a list of Returning Officers with their allocations to each of the 36 Electoral Districts. These tables are identified as Appendices. The Table of Contents of this Report give particulars which it is hoped will provide the necessary assistance to locate the pages at which the various subjects may be found.

Yours faithfully,

ISAAC HYATALI,
